Real Property Tax Payment Extension Application for Residents Called to Active Military Service

Persons deployed by the military, their spouses, and others directly affected by their deployment may be eligible for an extension of time to pay their real property taxes.

A "person deployed by the military" is any person who has been ordered to active military duty during any period of combat designated by presidential executive order or hazardous duty.

The extension runs until 90 days after the end of the individual's deployment. No interest and/or penalties will accrue during this extension period.
